Summer Camp 2009

Ocean Creatures

with Christine Henry

June 15-19, 9am-noon

Ages 3-6

Set off on a voyage to explore the wonders of the ocean. We will learn about the creatures who live in and around the ocean through crafts, music, and play.

Christine has taught at Penland's Kids Camp and for TRAC's Enhanced Arts in the Preschools Program. She currently teaches at Spruce Pine Montessori. She is a glass artist and holds a degree in psychology from UNC-A.

Far Out Folding

with Robyn Josephs

June 15-19, 1:30-4:30pm

Ages 14-18

We will fold, bend, cut, tear, sew, staple and glue all kinds of paper, fibers, fabric, found objects, our minds, bodies and hearts into multi-dimensional shapes, books, cards, ornaments and UFOs (unidentifiable folded objects). We will begin with simple folds and skill build as far as our imaginations and creativity can take us. Bring anything you like to create with (art supplies, paper, etc.) and objects and words, poems that excite you.

Robyn was Artist in Residence at Open Connections in Pennsylvania and has facilitated retreats in artist spirituality at Pendle Hill in Pennsylvania.

Fun with Collage

with Wanda Levin

June 22-26, 9am-noon

Ages 3-5

Pictures made using different textures, shapes and colors will come alive as we create one-of-a-kind collages. We will use a variety of materials such as yarn, pasta, magazines, foil, and objects from nature, etc. Spirited singing, movement and stories will be woven into each day.

Wanda has taught at Spruce Pine Montessori for 16 years. She is a certified Montessori teacher and holds a BFA in studio art and art education from Denison University in Ohio.

Sock Puppets: Building and Performing with Milky Way Floyd

June 22-26, 1:30-4:40pm

Ages 7-11

We will be exploring different materials to create and perform with fun and frivolous sock puppets.

Please bring at least 4 socks with you to the first class.

Milky Way has a Masters of Fine Arts in Youth Theater with an emphasis on Puppetry and a Masters of Education in Early Care and Education. She has taught at Penland's Kids Camps.

Fun with Printing

with Wanda Levin

June 29-July 3, 9am-noon

Ages 3-5

We will print with such things as kitchen gadgets, fruits, vegetables, leaves, bubbles, sneaker treads, toy trucks and cars. The sky's the limit! Spirited singing, movement and stories will be woven into each day.

Wanda has taught at Spruce Pine Montessori for 16 years. She is a certified Montessori teacher and holds a BFA in studio art and art education from Denison University in Ohio.

Penny Rug Felt Applique

with Doreen Brannan

In this class students will make projects using a traditional appliqué technique with felt and embroidery thread. This is a great technique for beginners as well as seasoned stitchers.

Doreen is a local artist and member of TRAC specializing in folk art and traditional craft techniques.

June 29-July 3, 1:30-4:40pm

Ages 7 and up

Out of This World Space Camp

with Christine Henry

Build a rocket, create an astronaut suit, and blast off on an educational and artistic tour of the solar system and beyond.

Christine has taught at Penland's Kids Camp and for TRAC's Enhanced Arts in the Preschools Program. She currently teaches at Spruce Pine Montessori. She is a glass artist and holds a degree in psychology from UNC-A.

July 6-10, 9am-noon

Ages 3-6

Sewing for Softies

with Wendi Gratz

Bring your favorite dolls and stuffed animals and we'll make them a new wardrobe. Students will learn to draft patterns, sew garments by hand and machine, and embellish their designs.

Wendi is a fiber artist who has taught summer classes for kids at both Penland and Spruce Pine Montessori.

July 6-10, 1:30-4:40pm

Ages 7-12

Everything Animals

with Hannah Levin

This class will explore animals in many different media. We'll sculpt, draw, sing songs, collage, make masks, and maybe even create some edible animals. Come ready to make your imaginary or real animals come to life.

Hannah has an MA in Art. She taught K-8 art for four years and now teaches at Arthur Morgan School.

July 13-17, 9am-noon

Ages 6-10

Surprises with Sculpey

with Hannah Levin

Sculpey is a polymer clay that can be used to colorfully decorate many surfaces or be used to make beads. We'll explore lots of things, from jewelry to light-switch plates.

Hannah has an MA in Art. She taught K-8 art for four years and now teaches at Arthur Morgan School.

July 13-17, 1:30-4:40pm

Ages 12-15

Folk Art Creations

with True Kelly

Treasure is where you find it. Crafted from man-made discards and nature's cupboard, we will fuel up our imaginative minds to discover, create, and speculate on the endless possibilities of two and three "D" stuff. We'll fold, bend, mold, bang, and glue our one-of-a-kinds to wear, hang, shake, and share.

True has worked and collaborated with regional Appalachian folk over the years. Her expansive collection of folk art is part of her ongoing inspiration as an artist.

July 20-24, 1:30-4:40pm

Ages 8-14
